

Modern Slavery: the power of data

Justine Currell
Director, Unseen
Deputy PCC, Bedfordshire

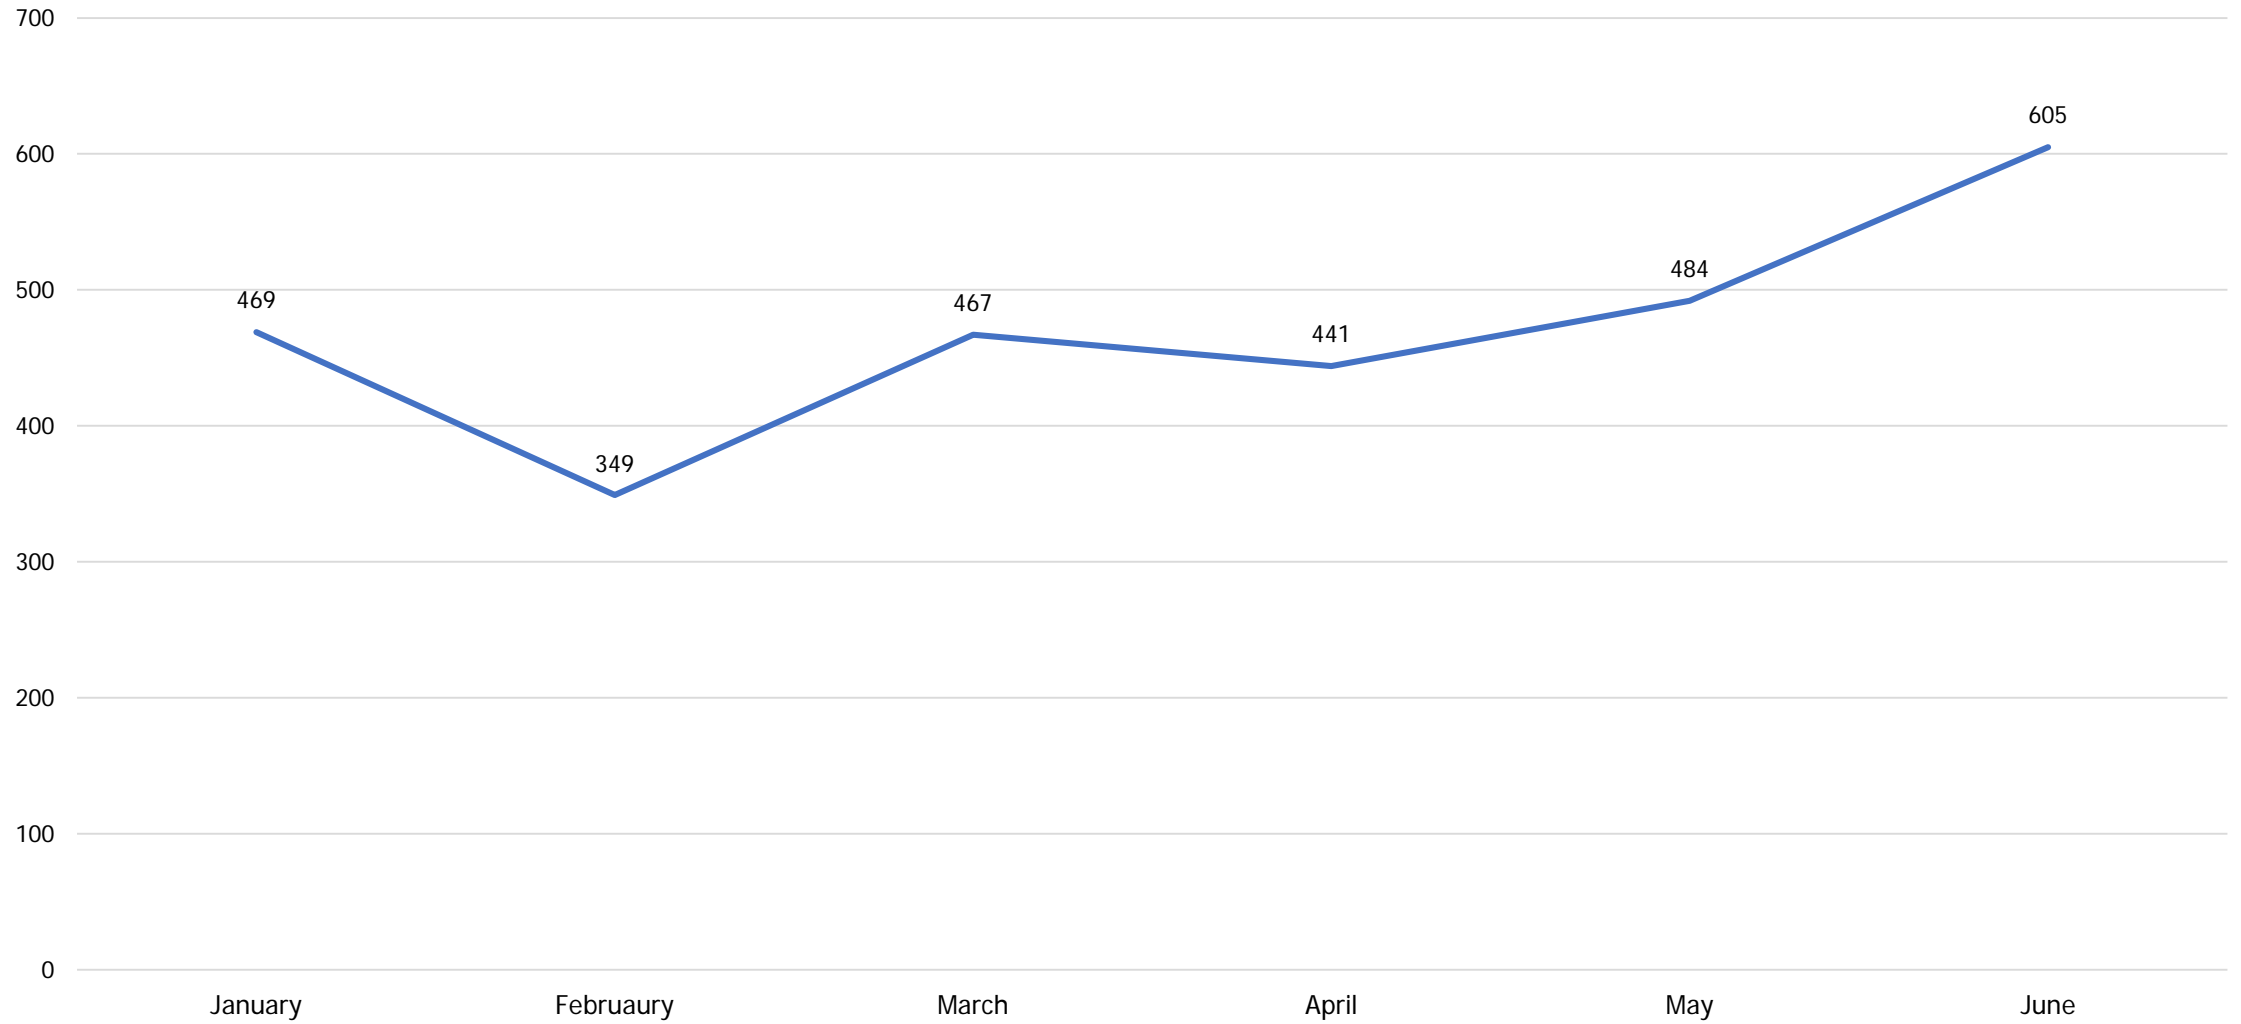

UK-wide Modern Slavery Helpline

- UK-wide - we also take international calls
- Confidential and independent
- 24/7, 365 days a year
- Fully trained specialist staff
- Translation services
- Calls from potential victims, businesses, the public and statutory agencies, including the police for information, advice, and support
- Resource Centre – directory of services
- Referrals to the police, NGOs, and local authorities
- Central point of contact for media and awareness
- Unique data set!

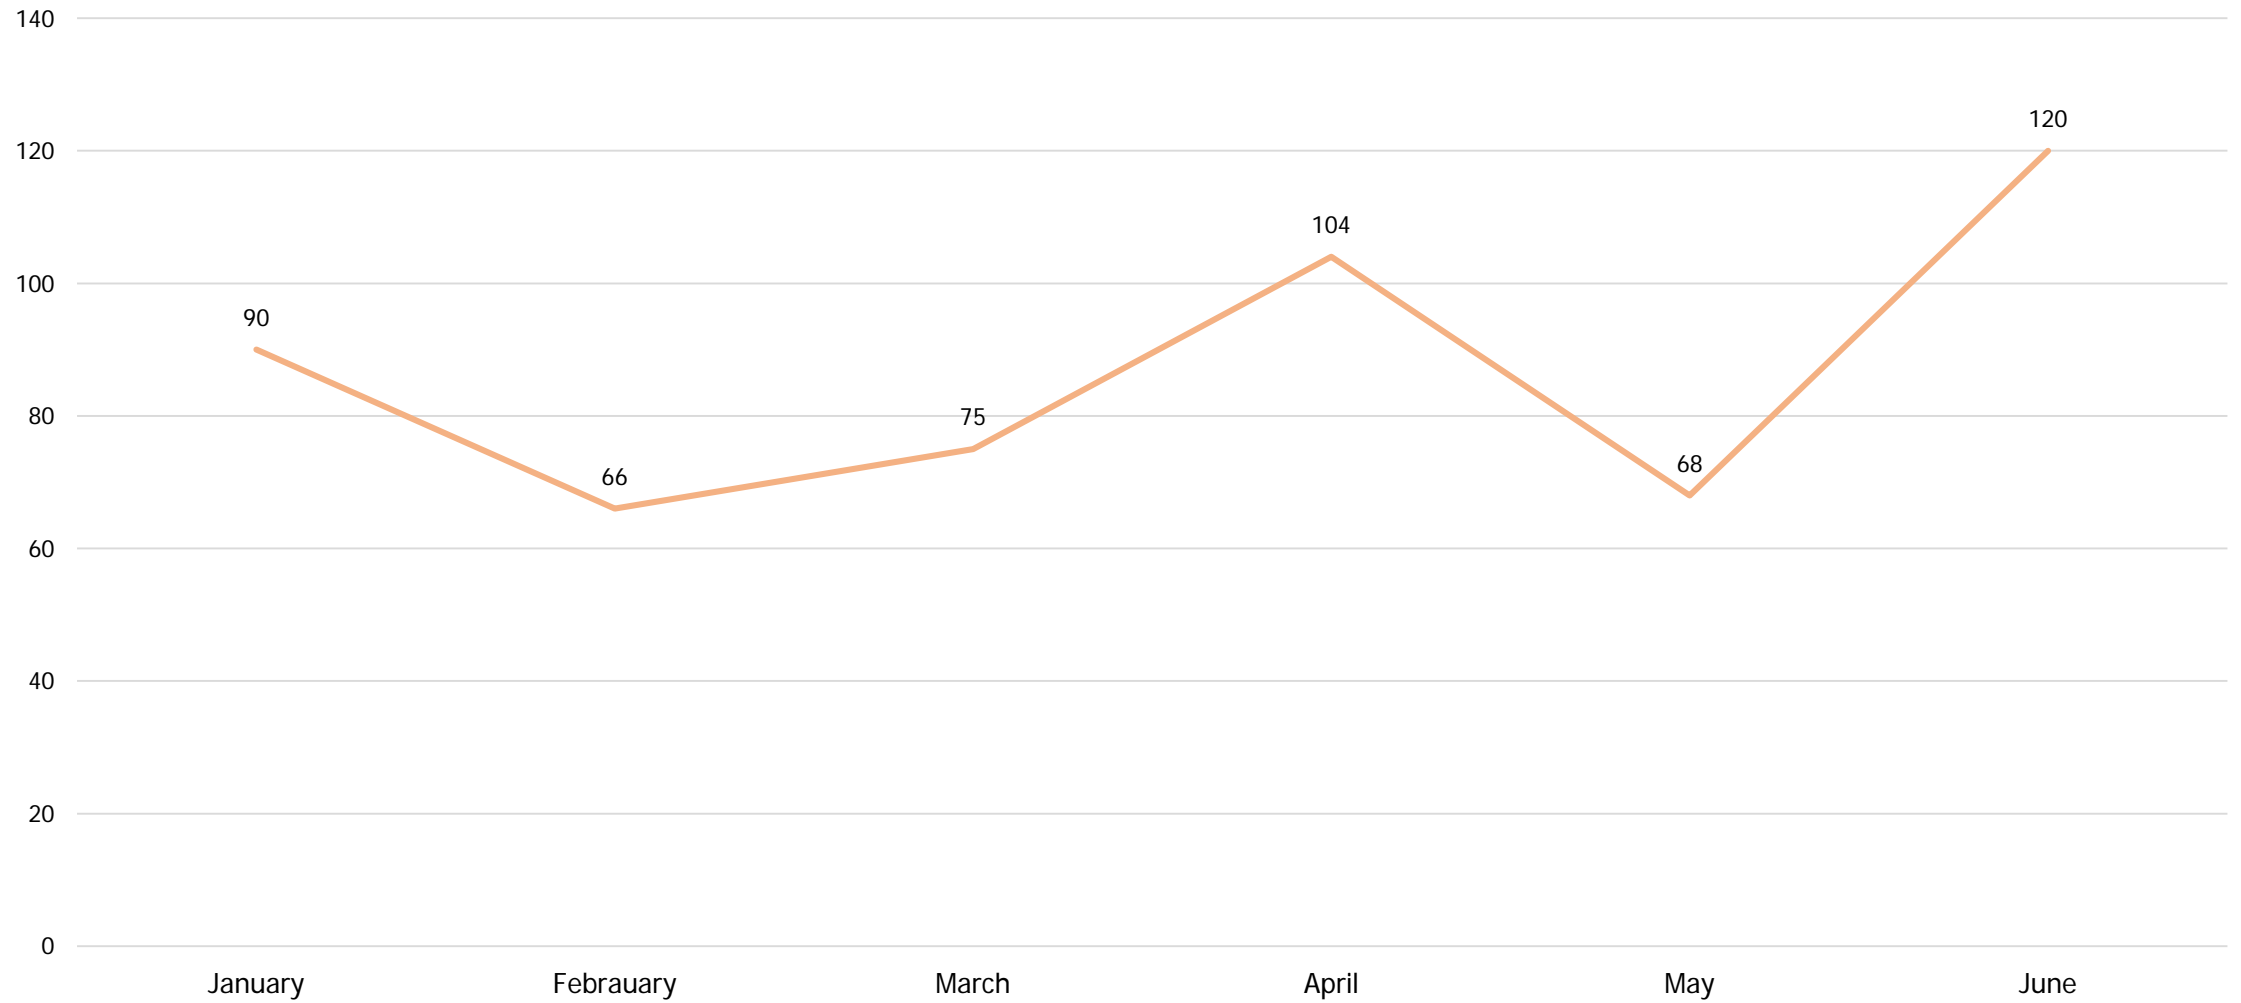

Helpline Calls 2018

Helpline Webforms 2018

Building the Picture

Appearance, behaviour, lack of PPE, money and debt, no English,
housing, travel

Indicators

Potential victim,
other victims,
exploiter,
facilitator

People involved

Where, when,
route of travel,
type of exploitation, recruitment & control methods

Situation being reported

Personal details, telephone number, contact arrangements, relationship to situation

Caller details

Forced Labour – Typical Sectors

Agriculture

Factories

Construction

Cleaning

Logistics

Hospitality

Care sector

Fishing and food processing

Common calls

Next Steps....

- Determine what the caller wants
- Talk through options
- Refer to other agencies for support, where appropriate
- Make a referral to the police, GLAA or NCA
- Provide regular statistics
- Support awareness-raising campaigns
- Support research projects
- PREVENT

Thank you!

If you need help, advice or information about any issue relating to modern slavery contact the 24/7 UK-wide Modern Slavery Helpline on:

08000 121 700